

MISSION - This budget, which is managed by the County Attorney, provides for those items that relate to the legal services necessary for the operation of the County government. Claims Against the County is an account used to pay claims relating to erroneous assessments, poultry and livestock, and other miscellaneous claims against the County treasury. Legal Services includes the costs associated with ordinance reviews, property acquisition, and certain counsel for the James City Service Authority, Industrial Development Authority, James City Transit Company, the Social Services Board and Community Development. The Code Revision account provides funds for making revisions to the County Code, which becomes necessary when new ordinances are adopted or current ordinances are changed.
