Concert series

James City County Parks and Recreation is excited to announce that its popular "Riverbank Rhythms" concert series has been renamed and is moving to Sullivan Square in New Town. This family-oriented concert series will be held on Thursday nights in June, behind 2007 Legacy Hall. Concerts will run from 6:30-8 p.m. and will feature the following scheduled artists:

- June 4 – Splash (beach)
- June 11 – Premiere (variety of beach, swing, oldies and country)
- June 18 – Chasing Shadows (classic rock from the 70's, 80's and 90's)
- June 25 – Marcus Young (R&B and jazz)

Pack a picnic basket and bring a blanket for a wonderful evening in New Town filled with music, festivities, friends and more! Co-sponsored by New Town Associates, LLC.

For more information or in case of rain cancellations or the rescheduling of concerts, call 259-5353.

Fireworks

In James City County, the possession, display, sale, and storage of fireworks is prohibited. This includes fireworks legally purchased elsewhere.

Violations are Class 1 misdemeanors and are punishable by confinement in jail for not more than twelve months and/or a fine of not more than $2,500.

If you have inadvertently purchased or are in possession of fireworks, you can call the Fire Marshal's Office at 220-0626 or turn them in at any County Fire Station without being charged.

Fireworks displays conducted with a permit issued by the James City County Fire Marshal's Office are exempt.

Norge Depot news

The Norge Depot is now included on the National Register of Historic Places. The Depot was built between 1906 and 1908 by the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company. When faced with potential demolition, it was moved in 2006 from its original location adjacent to the railroad tracks on Peach Street in Norge to the James City County Library site on Croaker Road. The National Register is administered by the National Park Service under the Secretary of the Interior.
