Proof of Residency

Proof of residency is required to purchase or renew a resident access pass. A resident is defined as anyone who physically resides in James City County or the City of Williamsburg. This must be a primary residence as reported on income tax forms and used for voter registration. Proper documentation is required to prove residency. Documentation can be a DMV issued driver's license with current street address, Virginia I.D. card with current street address, or with one of the following that shows street address: a utility bill, lease agreement or voter registration.
