U Can Play, Too – Piano Lessons (ages 7-12)

Explore and play while learning the Alfred method on digital pianos to improve memorization and small motor skills. Your child will have a blast exploring their natural abilities at their own pace. Both children and their parents find it truly rewarding when a child reaches a pre-set goal or milestone such as learning a new song, performing in front of others or just finding enjoyment in music. Instructor: Leslie Michael.
